Re: Public Records Request Under the Provisions of the Wyoming Public Records Act
Wyo.Stat. §§ 16-4-201 et. seq.

Dear Records Custodian:

Pursuant to the Wyoming Public Records Act (Wyo.Stat. §§ 16-4-201 et seq), the Wyoming Republican Party, respectfully requests that we be provided with the opportunity to inspect and potentially copy the following documents and materials related to Governor Dave Freudenthal's use of the airplanes owned by the State of Wyoming:

1. All documents and materials of any kind whatsoever that identify the number of times since January, 2003 that Governor Freudenthal has used any of the airplanes currently or previously owned by the State of Wyoming.
2. All documents and materials of any kind whatsoever that quantify the costs incurred or associated with Governor Freudenthal's use since January, 2003 of any of the airplanes currently or previously owned by the State of Wyoming.
3. All documents and materials of any kind whatsoever that identify the agency or agencies that have paid for Governor Freudenthal's use since January, 2003 of any of the airplanes currently or previously owned by the State of Wyoming. In providing this information, please identify the account within the agency budget, with the account identified by the source of the funds used.
4. All documents and materials of any kind whatsoever that identify Governor Freudenthal's destination(s) and stops made when using any of the airplanes currently or previously owned by the State of Wyoming.

EXHIBIT B

5. All documents and materials of any kind whatsoever that identify the reason for Governor Freudenthal's use of any of the airplanes currently or previously owned by the State of Wyoming.
6. All documents and materials of any kind whatsoever that identify the passengers that accompanied Governor Freudenthal since January, 2003 when using any of the airplanes currently or previously owned by the State of Wyoming.

The phrase "[a]ll documents and materials of any kind whatsoever," is intended to be interpreted in its broadest sense possible, regardless of the physical form or characteristic, and includes those documents that are maintained in hard-copy form, in electronic form, or on micro-film. This request includes all materials in your files, whether created by you, another State Agency, a Federal Agency, private organizations, public organizations, governmental entities, or individuals.

If you conclude that any of the requested information is exempt from disclosure, we respectfully request that the subject information be identified by document, along with the statutory basis for the claimed exemption. If only a portion of a file or document is exempt from release, we request that the remainder be provided, again with an explanation of the statutory basis for the claimed exemption.

If you find that the requested documents do not exist, we request a letter from your office stating that the documents do not exist.

We appreciate your attention to this matter and look forward to hearing from you as to when a representative of our organization may inspect the documents identified above. At this time we ask only that you make the documents available for inspection. Upon review of the documents, we may request copies of selected information. We will not pay for copies of any information not specifically requested upon review.

Sincerely,

Drake D. Hill
Chairman
